LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO
RAMBLIN' AROUND

THE 2016 STUDENT GUIDE TO LOYOLA'S NEIGHBORHOODS
If you are reading this, chances are you are new to the neighborhoods surrounding our lakeside campuses, or perhaps you are just looking to experience more of what these vibrant, interesting communities have to offer. The purpose of this guide is to help you navigate through these areas and beyond.

Within Edgewater, Rogers Park, and Gold Coast, you will find welcoming residents and business owners ready to tell you why their neighborhoods are so great. This guide includes over 200 business listings from restaurants and local shops—in addition to conveniences like health clubs and grocery stores. Also included is information on how to get around via public transportation, which cultural institutions to hit up, how to do it for cheap, and more.

From all of us, “Welcome to Loyola, we look forward to seeing you ramblin’ around the neighborhood!”

Welcome to Loyola!
COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Good Neighbor Policy

Students are expected to conduct themselves as mature and responsible members of the Chicago and Loyola communities. As such, they are responsible for upholding all federal, state, and city laws and ordinances, especially those relating to noise, traffic, parking, zoning, and consumption of alcohol. In addition, they are expected to foster an atmosphere that nurtures positive educational pursuits, an understanding and tolerance of those with different cultural and political points of view, and an environment that encourages responsible behavior.

A special thanks goes to the Loyola University Chicago department of University Marketing and Communication for their vision and layout of this guide. Content was created by student workers at the office of Campus and Community Planning at Loyola. Ramblin’ Around content was managed by Cecilia Rodriguez with invaluable efforts from sales and content staff Michen Dewey. The guide was created in cooperation with Sandi Price and Ana Bermúdez of the Rogers Park Business Alliance and Katrina Balog and Melissa Franada of the Edgewater Chamber of Commerce.

Loyola’s neighborhoods

Loyola’s campuses are located in some of our most vibrant neighborhoods. We encourage you to explore these and others to experience all that Chicago has to offer. Please see our transportation section on page 9 for tips on how to get around!

EDG楔水
Authenticity, diversity, and character abound! The neighborhood of Edgewater serves as the southern border of Loyola’s Lake Shore Campus. It is home to coffee shops, ice cream parlors, local theaters, shopping, and restaurants offering global cuisine—all just a short stroll from your classes. Explore the historic district of Bryn Mawr as well as nearby streets like Granville, Devon, and Broadway. Make time for one of our beaches, and don’t forget to take your bike for a spin on the Lakefront Trail!

ROGERS PARK
To the north of Loyola’s Lake Shore Campus lies Rogers Park, a historic lakefront community comprised of the most politically, economically, and socially diverse population in Chicago. In addition to some of the loveliest and most accessible beaches in the city, you’ll find plenty of shopping, theater, food, and live music. Don’t miss the Glenwood Avenue Arts District with its pubs, theaters, cafes, and public art, including the Mile of Murals project and the 49th Ward mural project.

GOLD COAST
The historic Gold Coast neighborhood is home to Loyola’s Water Tower Campus. Hop on the intercampus shuttle or the CTA’s Red Line to explore a bustling hub of shopping and culture. Stroll down Michigan Avenue to experience all that Gold Coast has to offer. Walk along the lake with the skyscrapers beside you, or take a night off at one of the many high-end restaurants.
