Course Description:
The job of an educational administrator is very challenging, as well as, very rewarding. Administrators must use their knowledge of theory, research, current educational best practices, and their own good sense and ethical compass to provide the leadership needed to move schools and educational institutions forward.

The candidate may only begin this internship upon successful completion of the state-mandated online training for Teacher Evaluation as required under 105 ILCS 5/24A-3 of the Illinois School Code.

Outcomes:
Students will demonstrate proficiency in the professional competencies necessary for a successful career in educational leadership. These outcomes are aligned to the CPS Principal Competencies, the Loyola Conceptual Framework and the ELCC and ISLLC standards.

Conceptual Framework
The School of Education at Loyola University Chicago, a Jesuit and Catholic urban university, supports the Jesuit ideal of knowledge in the service of humanity. We endeavor to advance professional education in the service of social justice, engaged with Chicago, the nation, and the world. To achieve this vision the School of Education participates in the discovery, development, demonstration, and dissemination of professional knowledge and practice within a context of ethics, service to others, and social justice. We fulfill this mission by preparing professionals to serve as teachers, administrators, psychologists, and researchers; by conducting research on issues of professional practice and social justice; and by partnering with schools and community agencies to enhance life-long learning in the Chicago area.

The conceptual framework of Loyola’s School of Education is “professionalism in service of social justice.” This course contributes to the realization of this framework by engaging students in the work of leading and transforming Chicago Public Schools to ensure improved outcomes for students, teachers and the community.

While the training of the Internship candidate is centered around the concept of “hands on learning,” the professional growth of the Internship candidate is fostered through reflective analysis of his/her skills in problem solving, application, and implementation of leadership skills.

Standard 2
- An education leader promotes the success of every student by advocating, nurturing, and sustaining a school culture and instructional program conducive to student learning and staff professional growth.

Standard 3
- An education leader promotes the success of every student by ensuring management of the organization, operations, and resources for a safe, efficient, and effective learning environment.

Standard 4
- An education leader promotes the success of every student by collaborating with faculty and community members, responding to diverse community interests and needs, and mobilizing community resources.

Standard 5
- An education leader promotes the success of every student by acting with integrity, fairness, and in an ethical manner.

Standard 6
- An education leader promotes the success of every student by understanding, responding to, and influencing the political, social economic, legal and cultural context.

Instructor/Course Evaluation
The instructor and course will be evaluated at the end of the term by students through the use of an online evaluation instrument. Each evaluation will address the quality and relevance of course material and the quality of the instruction. The intent is to seek information, which will help to improve both the quality of the course and instructional competence. In completing these evaluations, each student should be mindful of the extent to which the course objectives have been met.

5/18/15
IDEA Course Assessment Objectives:
- Learning to apply course material to improve thinking, problem solving, and decisions.
- Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the field most closely related to this course.
- Learning to analyze and critically evaluate ideas, arguments, and points of view.

Diversity:
In concert with the conceptual framework for the School of Education, faculty and students will be expected to show respect and sensitivity to individual, cultural, social, and economic diversity. In this spirit, as we look at questions of organizational theory, instructional leadership and student achievement, it will be our challenge to create will and capacity within our schools so that all educational stakeholders can fulfill the promise of education.

Technology:
The information pertinent to school organizations and instructional leadership constantly changes. Therefore, throughout the course, students will develop and practice skills in locating and using on-line resources critical to these topics. All students MUST register their LIVETEXT account. Students must use their Loyola University Chicago email to register this account. Failure to register one’s LIVETEXT account will result in a student not being able to receive a final grade.

Academic Honesty
Academic honesty is an expression of interpersonal justice, responsibility and care, applicable to Loyola University faculty, students, and staff, which demands that the pursuit of knowledge in the university community be carried out with sincerity and integrity. The School of Education’s Policy on Academic Integrity can be found at: http://www.luc.edu/education/academics_policies_integrity.shtml. For additional academic policies and procedures refer to: http://www.luc.edu/education/academics_policies_main.shtml

Accessibility
Students who have disabilities which they believe entitle them to accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act should register with the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) office. To request accommodations, students must schedule an appointment with an SSWD coordinator. Students should contact SSWD at least four weeks before their first semester or term at Loyola. Returning students should schedule an appointment within the first two weeks of the semester or term. The University policy on accommodations and participation in courses is available at: http://www.luc.edu/sswd/

Harassment (Bias Reporting)
It is unacceptable and a violation of university policy to harass, discriminate against or abuse any person because of his or her race, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, disability, religion, age or any other characteristic protected by applicable law. Such behavior threatens to destroy the environment of tolerance and mutual respect that must prevail for this university to fulfill its educational and health care mission. For this reason, every incident of harassment, discrimination or abuse undermines the aspirations and attacks the ideals of our community. The university qualifies these incidents as incidents of bias.

In order to uphold our mission of being Chicago’s Jesuit Catholic University-- a diverse community seeking God in all things and working to expand knowledge in the service of humanity through learning, justice and faith, any incident(s) of bias must be reported and appropriately addressed. Therefore, the Bias Response (BR) Team was created to assist members of the Loyola University Chicago community in bringing incidents of bias to the attention of the university. If you believe you are subject to such bias, you should notify the Bias Response Team at this link: http://webapps.luc.edu/biasreporting/

EthicsLine Reporting Hotline
Loyola University Chicago has implemented EthicsLine Reporting Hotline, through a third party internet & telephone hotline provider, to provide you with an automated and anonymous way to report activities that may involve misconduct or violations of Loyola University policy. You may file an anonymous report here on-line or by dialing 855-603-6988. (within the United States, Guam, and Puerto Rico)

The University is committed to the highest ethical and professional standards of conduct as an integral part of its mission of expanding knowledge in the service of humanity through learning, justice and faith. To achieve this goal, the University relies on each community member’s ethical behavior, honesty, integrity and good judgment. Each community member should demonstrate respect for the rights of others.
www.luc.edu/ethicsline

Electronic Communication Policies and Guidelines
The School of Education faculty, students and staff respect each other’s rights, privacy and access to electronic resources, services, and communications while in the pursuit of academic and professional growth, networking and research. All members of the university community are expected to demonstrate the highest standards of integrity, communication, and responsibility while accessing and utilizing technology, information resources, and computing facilities. A link to the Loyola University Chicago and School of Education official policies and guidelines can be found at:
http://www.luc.edu/media/lucedu/education/pdfs/SOE_Cyberbullying_Policy.pdf

Assignments will not be accepted past the stated due date on the syllabus. References must be cited using APA 6th edition style.

ALL WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS MUST BE TYPED AND DOUBLE SPACED. It is the expectation that assignments are written at a professional level using correct English grammar and syntax, organized thought and higher level thinking skills. A rubric for each assignment is attached to this syllabus

Late Assignments
Due to the fact that this course is based on providing you with feedback on your principal competences, You are strongly encouraged to submit evidence, artifacts, and reflections of your work on at least two principal competencies per month, on the 1st and the 15th. Waiting until the last minute to submit your evidence, artifacts, and reflections will result in minimal feedback from your coach.

E-PORTFOLIO
In this course, we will use the Loyola Taskstream e-portfolio system as a student portfolio for you to enter your evidence, artifacts, and reflections of skills on the CLC list of competencies. You are required to have access to (at least) a DSL Internet connection and Loyola Email Account with reliable access. You are required to be familiar with downloading and attaching files. Including creating and opening a Zip File. You must also have access to Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft PowerPoint. Additionally, you must have access to the following Software – All are available for free download if needed this semester: Adobe Flash Player, Adobe Reader, Adobe Shockwave, Java Software, QuickTime, RealPlayer.

Candidates are expected to manage and add work to their e-portfolio each semester until all CPS competencies are mastered. Mastery of at least six CPS competencies per semester is required until all competencies are mastered.

Class Participation Policies:
To achieve full benefit of participation, this course requires at least 3 hours per week. Approximately 1 ½ hours of this time is spent entering your experiences that document principal competences into the Loyola eportfolio system and approximately 1 ½ hours of time meeting with your Loyola leadership coach each week. Inability to meet this time requirement will reduce a participant’s benefit from the course, or, in some cases, fulfillment of assignments needed to complete and receive credit for the course. This course has been designed to require time just as an on-campus class. Failure to meet this minimum requirement will result in a reduction of grade. The course rubric is included on the next page.

Grading Policy:

Grading: (See Included Rubric For Point Allocations)
A = 32-36 points
B = 29-31 points
C = 25-28 points
D = 21-24 points
F = 0-20 points

Grading Policy: Candidates are required to master all of the CPS competencies by the end of their third year in the program. Coaching for CPS candidates concludes at the end of the spring term of the third year in the program.

For the Spring 2015 semester, candidates are required to submit to their coaches evidence of mastery of three (3) by March 1, 2015 and three (3) competencies by April 1, 2015.
