

Proof of Financial Support and Estimate of Expenses AY 2023-2024

You must provide financial documentation that reflects that you have sufficient funds to the cost of attendance of one year of study in your academic program.

Students supported by their government, an educational institution or official agency must submit an official letter reflecting that the scholarship is valid at Loyola University Chicago. The letter must contain the name of the scholarship and the amount being provided.

Students who will be self-supporting AND/OR will be supported by family funds need to submit a signed Affidavit of Support and provide proof of funding dated within the last six months and reflecting a balance availability to cover the total amount listed as well as the expenses of any dependents you are bringing with.

Note: In order to place an e-signature on the Affidavit of Support Form, please download, save to your desktop, and reopen the PDF form.

Please see below for estimated tuition, fee, and living expense figures. If a spouse will travel to the U.S. with you, you must provide an additional $7,200 USD in funding. You will need to provide an additional $3,600 USD in funding for each child that will travel to the U.S. with you.

Examples of acceptable financial documentation include, but are not limited to:

- Bank statements or letters
- Loan approval documents
- Scholarship letters
- Financial award letters
