Access a Recording
Adobe Connect recordings can be accessed through the Adobe Connect tool within Sakai.

1. Recordings available for review are listed under the Recordings heading.
2. The number posted represents the number of recordings available for that room.

3. Click the recording number, and then click the Recording Name. The recording will open in a new window.