Dear Prospective Government Attorney:

If you are a lawyer new to Chicago or have never worked in the public sector, you may not know where to begin your job search for a government position. To help get you started, the Young Lawyers Section of The Chicago Bar Association has compiled the following list of hiring information for several government agencies. This list is not intended to be comprehensive, but simply represents a cross-section of some nearby government agencies. In addition, participating government agencies in the 2009 Government Services Career Fair may provide you with further hiring information.

We hope that you will find the information in this booklet helpful in your pursuit of a legal career in government service.
