Did you know that suspensions can increase the chance of students dropping out of school, not getting a job and even going to jail?

If you know a student has been suspended unreasonably and needs to be back in school or get a current or past suspension off their record...

Stand Up For Each Other, Chicago can help:

- We are trained advocates who can guide families through the suspension appeal process and facilitate dialogue between families and schools.

- We are not lawyers. We are law students who care about students!

- We believe that it is important that families are aware of their rights so that all students receive the education they deserve.
