LOYOLA CONSUMER LAW REVIEW

Volume 23 Number 2

FEATURE ARTICLES

Darren A. Prum & Stephen Del Percio ................................................................. 113

The Place of Corporate Lawmaking in American Society
Fenner Stewart, Jr. .................................................................................................. 147

STUDENT ARTICLES

Who Owns Your Dinner? A Discussion of America’s Patented Genetically Engineered Food Sources, and Why Reform is Necessary
Madison Smith ...................................................................................................... 182

Conversion of Digital Property: Protecting Consumers in the Age of Technology
Caitlin J. Akins ...................................................................................................... 215

CONSUMER NEWS

Debt Collectors Behaving Badly: A Guide to Consumer Rights
Cody Vitello ........................................................................................................ 252