In 1996 a group of MBA directors and administrators from Jesuit and Jesuit-friendly universities decided to work together to promote the many benefits of graduate Jesuit business education. This consortium of 30 schools includes some of the most revered names in business education. The collective resources of these schools provide students and alumni with a unique competitive advantage in making a difference in their education, career, and in the world.

MBA graduates of Jesuit colleges and universities are highly sought after by corporations for their integrity and high performance.
