When & Where to Study Abroad

Students majoring in Criminal Justice and Criminology (CJC) have flexibility when and where they can study abroad. Sophomore year is the best time to study abroad. Students can take a mix of CJC major and elective courses, Core classes, Engaged Learning, and general electives abroad. Specific to the major, students can take CJC 201, 205, 206, 390, and 399, and CJC electives contingent on advisor approval.

Programs with course offerings in Criminal Justice and Criminology

Global Partners

USAC
- Gold Coast, Australia
- Melbourne, Australia
- Brighton, England
- Bristol, England
- London, England
- Reading, England
- Reading, England
- Accra, Ghana
- Cork, Ireland
- Auckland, New Zealand
- Oslo, Norway
- Stirling, Scotland
- Istanbul, Turkey

IES
- Sydney, Australia (University of Sydney)
- Sydney, Australia (University of New South Wales)
- Amsterdam, Netherlands
- Auckland, New Zealand
- Cape Town, South Africa
- Barcelona, Spain

SIT
- Buenos Aires, Argentina
- Fortaleza, Brazil
- Valparaiso, Chile
- Kathmandu, Nepal; Amman, Jordan; Santiago, Chile (multi-country)
- Rabat, Morocco
- Cape Town, South Africa
- Durban, South Africa

API
- Melbourne, Australia: La Trobe University
- Sydney, Australia: Macquarie University
- Leeds, England: University of Leeds
- Auckland, New Zealand: Auckland University of Technology
- Wellington, New Zealand: Victoria University of Wellington
- Stirling, Scotland: University of Stirling