When to Study Abroad

Secondary Education majors can study abroad during the spring semester of sophomore year, January Term, or summer without disrupting their time to graduate. Other Education majors can study abroad during January Term or summer. While abroad, students may take CORE courses, general elective courses, and secondary major content major courses. Prior approval for CORE and secondary major courses is required.