USAC Scholarship Application Form

If you plan to study abroad on a USAC program during the Summer 2017 term or Fall 2017 semester, you may be eligible for a need-based scholarship. Loyola’s Office for International Programs is providing scholarships of up to $2,000 to help cover the cost of tuition.

In order to apply for the USAC the scholarships, please:

- Write an essay (no more than 1000 words) explaining why you have chosen the study abroad program you wish to attend and how studying abroad will influence your academic, personal and future career goals.

At the end of your program, you will be asked to write a brief evaluation of your USAC study abroad experience, meet with a representative from the Office for International Programs, and participate in events to promote study abroad.

APPLICATION DEADLINE – FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 2017

Please return this form along with your essay to the Office for International Programs:

- Campus Address: Office for International Programs
  - Lake Shore Campus
  - Sullivan Center, 2nd Floor, Room 206

- Mailing Address: Office for International Programs
  - 1032 West Sheridan Road
  - Chicago, IL 60660

- Email: studyabroad@luc.edu

Name______________________________________________________   LUC ID #________________

(Last)    (First)   (Middle)

Telephone Number_____________________________________ Cumulative GPA__________________

Major______________________________________ Minor_________________________________

USAC Program you are applying for ______________________________________________________

Term you are applying for ______________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________________

Applicant’s Signature     Date