VIETNAM CENTER SCHOLARSHIP

Loyola’s Office for International Programs is excited to offer $5,000 travel stipends to eligible Loyola students as well as students from other colleges and universities who plan to study abroad at the Vietnam Center.

The award will be allocated toward:
- Round-trip airfare
- Vietnamese visa fees
- International health insurance
- Canon PowerShot camera

Funds available after the above expenses have been paid can be used toward:
- Allowance for all living expenses, including meals
- Travel budget for additional excursions and independent travel

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Students must meet one of the following criteria:
- Pell Grant recipient
- Science major/minor or pre-health
- Eligible for the TRIO program. (Known as ACE at Loyola University Chicago. Students from other schools should contact their own TRIO office.)

FOLLOW-UP REQUIREMENTS

- Must enroll in the “Humans and the Environment in Contemporary Vietnam” environmental studies course.
- Create a research project that consists of videos and presentations on an environmental issue.
- Volunteer to help promote the Vietnam Center on your campus once you return from the program.
A Vietnamese host-student admires a snake on a trip to the Mekong Delta.