Biographical/Administrative History
Mundelein College was established by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (BVMs) in 1929 and classes began in the fall of 1930. It was the first self-contained skyscraper college for women at the time of its founding. Mundelein pioneered areas such as the Weekend College and graduate level religious and liberal arts classes. It ran from 1929 until 1991 when it became affiliated with Loyola University Chicago. At the time of its affiliation, Mundelein was the last four year women’s college in Illinois.

Scope and Content
The Mundelein Audio Visual Collection contains recordings of Mundelein faculty, staff, students, visitors and speakers. It includes one-hundred and ninety two audio cassette tapes, one hundred and sixty one magnetic reel-to-reels, nine gramophone records, eighteen films, one hundred and two videos (forty eight videocassettes, thirty eight master videocassettes, eighteen type B videotapes and nine digital video discs) and are housed in twenty eight boxes.

Some of the audio visual collection was digitized in 2013 through a grant project funded by the Illinois State Historic Records Advisory Board and the BVMs. The selected audio visual materials were sent out to The Media Reserve. When returned, each file was quality controlled to ensure the digital copies were viable. There are three copies of each digital file; a preservation copy, a midlevel use and a mp3. The digital files reside on two separate external hard drives with the original hard drive being stored off site and the backup to be used for research. The materials that have been digitized are noted individually in the finding aid.

Mundelein College Audio Visual Collection, 1
After the digitization of select audio visual materials, the collection was re-labeled and re-processed because of discrepancies between the finding aid and item labels. The collection was given item numbers for each box to make it easier to find items within the box. Each item has a label on the outside of its case containing the box number, item number and title. If speakers are listed in the finding aid the case label states “For speakers, see MC AV finding aid.”

When re-labeling the collection, a small number of the cassette tapes were listened to when there were major discrepancies between tape labels, case labels and the finding aid. In most cases, the only new information added to the item’s case was the item number. If speakers are listed in the finding aid, it is noted on the item’s case label. In order to make titles fit on an item’s case the following abbreviations were used:

- Ann Ida Gannon, BVM = AIG
- Association = Assn.
- Audio-Visual = AV
- Communication: Comm.
- Conference = Con.
- Department = Dept.
- Institute of Pastoral Studies = IPS
- Mundelein College = MC
- Oral History = O.H.
- Philosophy = Phil.
- Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary = BVM
- Theology= Theo.

Labels were not created for Box 10: Gramophones due to archival concerns about the housing of the records. Additionally, labels were not created for Items 34-36 in Box 2 due to discrepancies in content and the ability to listen to the tapes.
