Part of the Loyola Experience is your life outside the classroom: the new friends you’ll make, the memories you’ll share, and the marks you’ll make. Connect, learn, and engage beyond the books through Student Activities & Greek Affairs (SAGA) and Campus Recreation. These offices are part of a whole division specifically designed to enhance your options for leading a well-rounded, balanced life at Loyola. Make the most out of your time here—get involved!

GETTING INVOLVED

Many students choose to get involved in one, or more, of our over 200 registered student organizations. Student organizations are a great way to meet new people, develop relationships with professional staff members, and gain invaluable leadership experience. Stop by the Student Organization Fair each semester or check out the full list of all of the registered student orgs online.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Don’t want to fully commit to a club or organization but still want to be involved? SAGA’s got you covered! Taking place throughout the year, SAGA hosts a series of special events—and you’re the guest of honor.

WELCOME WEEK—Welcome Week is the perfect opportunity for you to dive into your Loyola Experience. Welcome Week provides a number of opportunities for you to explore, build relationships, and enjoy being a college student.

STUDENT ORGANIZATION FAIR—Learn about Loyola’s student organizations and discover how to get involved on campus. With over 200 Recognized Student Organizations on campus, there is guaranteed to be something for everyone. New students, transfer students, and returning students are all invited to attend to find ways to get involved.

NEW YEAR’S FESTIVAL—Join the Loyola community in kicking off the new academic year with a bang! Enjoy fireworks, food, and athletic activities. There’s always plenty of chances to win prizes and challenge your friends in a variety of carnival games too.

FINALS BREAKFAST—This free breakfast for students is the highlight of exam week allowing students to relax, take a study break, and catch up with friends before going home for winter and summer break. Faculty and staff participate in serving students.

National research has shown that involvement in sororities and fraternities increases students’ chances of graduating from college.
SORORITY & FRATERNITY LIFE

Greek Life provides you with the opportunity to enhance your Loyola experience through affiliation with a special community dedicated to scholarship, service, leadership, and unity.

RAMBLE OUTDOORS

The Office for Outdoor Experiential Education (O.O.E.E) serves the Loyola community by providing integrated educational experiences designed to foster the student promise of care for self, care for others, and care for the environment. Using the outdoors as classrooms, you’ll participate in challenging and intentional group-based activities that provide space for reflection and leadership development. Some of the outdoor activities include kayaking, rock climbing, camping, skiing/snowshoeing, and mountaineering. If you want to plan your own weekend excursion, we can help.
