

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

DECLARATION AND CERTIFICATION OF FINANCES

Chicago Center students must complete this form before Loyola University Chicago can issue a certificate of eligibility (DS-2019 for the F-1 student visa). Applicants must submit evidence of adequate financial support to the cover cost of attendance for the duration of their study abroad program.

The amounts provided below are estimates only and pertain to the minimum required to maintain F-1 status for one semester. For specific tuition and fees information, please consult the Office of the Bursar www.luc.edu/bursar.

If supported by personal and/or family funds, submit the signed affidavit of support (below). Applications must include proof of funding dated within the last six months, reflecting a balance availability to cover the total amount listed below.

If sponsored by government, educational institution, or official agency, please submit an official letter reflecting that the scholarship is valid at Loyola.
