The Story of Emmett Till

February 5, 2019

6:30 PM • Information Commons, Fourth Floor
Reception preceding the lecture at 6 PM

featuring

Elliott J. Gorn

Joseph Gagliano Chair of American
Urban History, Loyola University Chicago

Please join us for an evening with Dr. Gorn as he discusses his latest book, Let the People See: The Story of Emmett Till. The book examines the life of a 14-year-old Chicago boy who was brutally murdered in 1955 in Mississippi, and the acquittal of his murderers despite overwhelming evidence.

Reservations are encouraged. Please visit libraries.LUC.edu to register.

Refreshments provided by Alumni Relations.