This form serves as confirmation of intent and ability to pay the expected tuition, fees, and living expenses for your academic program at Loyola University Chicago’s English Language Learning Program (ELLP). In order to be issued an ELLP Form I-20, you and/or your financial sponsor must also submit evidence of financial support (e.g. a current bank account statement or scholarship letter) to cover the cost of attendance and living expenses for at least your first full session of enrollment at ELLP. You and/or your financial sponsor will then be responsible for tuition, fees, and living expenses for any additional sessions of enrollment at ELLP.
