As revelations of clerical abuse and cover-up come to light, our panel of lay Catholic experts discusses what it means.

After initial comments, Q&A from the audience follows.

Featured Panelists

Justice Anne M. Burke is a member of the Illinois Supreme Court’s First Judicial District. She was appointed to the Supreme Court on July 6, 2006 and was elected in 2008. Prior to joining the Supreme Court, Justice Burke was appointed to the Appellate Court in 1995 and elected the following year to the Appellate bench serving until 2006. At the request of the USCCB, Justice Burke served on the National Review Board for the Protection of Children and Young People and was Chair from 2002-2004.

Dr. Richard R. Gaillardetz is the Joseph Professor of Catholic Systematic Theology at Boston College and is currently the chair of the theology department. Prof. Gaillardetz received his Ph.D. in systematic theology from the University of Notre Dame. He has published over 140 articles and authored/edited 14 books. Most recently he published a newly revised and expanded edition of his popular book, By What Authority? Foundations for Understanding Authority in the Church (Liturgical Press, 2018).

Dr. Jennifer Haselberger is a canon lawyer who received her licentiate degree in canon law from the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium, in 2004. She also has a Doctorate in Philosophy from the University of London, England. She is a member of the Canon Law Society of America and served as Chair and as a member of the Resolutions Committee of that Society. Dr. Haselberger has practiced as a canon lawyer in the United States and internationally.