A student shall be eligible for the degree of Juris Doctor upon satisfying the following requirements:

- All students must successfully complete a minimum of eighty-six (86) credit units, seventy-four (74) of which must be graded credits.
- Students must complete their course of study for the JD degree no later than 84 months after commencing law study at the School of Law or at a law school from which the school has accepted transfer credit.

All students must satisfy residency requirements. These requirements are designed to comply with Standards of the American Bar Association and ensure that students have had sufficient exposure to the knowledge, skills and values of the legal profession. At the same time, they are designed to equalize tuition costs to the extent possible.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS FOR FULL-TIME DIVISION STUDENTS:
A student in the full-time division can achieve the required time in residence in the following way:
  a) Completion of 6 full-time semesters [12 - 17 credits per semester]
  b) Students in the full-time division may not advance the date of their graduation by taking classes during the summer session.
  c) Additional credits earned in one academic year or summer session will not permit a student in the full-time division to take fewer than the minimum credit hours (12) per semester thereafter.
  d) Note: All students may register for a maximum of 8 credit hours during any one summer session.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS FOR PART-TIME WEEKEND DIVISION STUDENTS:
To earn a JD degree in the Part-time Weekend JD Program, you must complete a minimum of 86 credit hours of coursework in no fewer than seven semesters. Students in the part-time weekend program must register for a minimum of 8 credit hours, and no more than 12 credit hours, each semester. A student in the Part-time Weekend JD Program can achieve the required time in residence in these ways:

- Seven Semesters and at Least Two Summer Sessions
  A student in the Weekend Part-Time Division can meet the residency requirement upon the completion of seven part-time semesters and a minimum of eleven academic credits over two or more summer sessions. Note: All students may register for a maximum of 8 credit hours during any one summer session.

A student in the Weekend Part-Time Division, with approval from the Dean’s Office, may meet the residency requirement and reduce the number of required summer academic credits (eleven credits) by completing no more than two additional hours above the maximum part-time limit of twelve hours in semesters three, four, five, six or seven. In other words, a student in the Weekend Part-Time Division who wishes to graduate in seven semesters and who receives prior approval may be permitted to take up to 14 credit hours in a semester, thereby reducing the eleven credit summer requirement by two credit hours to nine credit hours of summer school. To receive approval, the student must demonstrate that his or her outside/work responsibilities will allow for sufficient time to participate fully in the study of law during that semester. Note that students who receive prior approval from the Dean’s Office will be charged additional tuition at the hourly rate for each hour that exceeds twelve in that semester.

In addition to an array of electives, many flexible course options will be available, including independent study, and fully online courses (as many as 15 credit hours of fully online coursework after completion of 28 credit hours).

Students in the part-time division who wish to accelerate their graduation in this way should consult with a Student Advisor to make sure that they will be able to meet all degree and tuition requirements.

Note that additional credits earned in one academic year or summer session will not permit a student to take fewer than the minimum credit hours per semester thereafter.

- Eight Semesters
  A student in the part-time division can meet the residency requirement upon the completion of eight part-time semesters of a minimum of 8 credit hours.

REQUIRED CURRICULUM

| NOTE: If you have any questions regarding Curriculum Requirements, please see Dean Faught (Room 1230), Dean Gaspardo (Room 1227) or Ms. Santibanez-Bania (Room 1240). |

All students must successfully complete the required curriculum. Required courses include the following:

- Torts (4 credit hours in Fall semester of the first year)
- Property (4 credit hours in Fall semester of the first year full-time/second year part-time)
- Contracts (4 credit hours in Spring semester of the first year)
- Constitutional Law (4 credit hours in Spring semester of the first year full-time/second year part-time)
- Criminal Law (3 credit hours in Spring semester of the first year)

  1. an intensive field placement through Loyola’s Externship Program,
  2. through participation in one of Loyola’s seven clinics, or
  3. through an approved practicum project.

Students may not satisfy the Experiential Learning requirement by taking a class that is also taken to satisfy the “Skill” requirement or the “Perspective Elective” requirement.
o Mandatory “bar skills” class - J.D. Students who are ranked in the bottom 15% of their class after their second, third, or fourth semester of law school will be required to complete 2 credits in a designated “BAR SKILLS” class in order to graduate. Those students who entered law school before the fall of 2014 are exempt from this requirement.

- Students are required to schedule a Graduation Interview with the Law Registrar during the semester prior to their final semester to review credentials and apply for graduation. In other words, if the student expects to graduate after the spring semester, he or she must schedule a Graduation Interview with the Law Registrar during the prior fall semester.

ELIGIBILITY TO CONTINUE IN THE J.D. PROGRAM

NOTE: If you have any questions regarding eligibility to continue in the J.D. program, please see Dean Faught (Room 1230), Dean Gaspardo (Room 1227) or Ms. Santibanez-Bania (Room 1240).

- Students in the J.D. Program who matriculate prior to the 2017-18 Academic Year must achieve a minimum 2.0 grade point average in order to graduate. Prior to graduation, eligibility to continue in the J.D. Program is determined as follows:
  In order to remain in good standing and be eligible to continue in the program, a student:
  o must have attained a grade point average of at least 1.75 at the end of the first semester of the first year;
  o after the completion of every semester thereafter, maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0; and
  o not receive a grade of “F” or “WF” in more than three courses during residence in the School of Law

- Students who matriculate after the 2016-17 Academic Year must achieve a minimum 2.33 grade point average in order to graduate. Prior to graduation, eligibility to continue in the J.D. Program is determined as follows:
  In order to remain in good standing and be eligible to continue in the program, a student:
  o must have attained a grade point average of at least 2.00 at the end of the first semester of the first year;
  o after the completion of every semester thereafter, maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.33; and
  o not receive a grade of “F” or “WF” in more than three courses during residence in the School of Law
Students who transfer divisions can satisfy residency requirement in the following ways. A student may not transfer divisions in their final semester of law school.

- Full-time students who seek to transfer to the part-time division must meet with a member of the Dean's Office to discuss the conditions upon which a transfer will be approved. If permitted, a student who transfers from the full-time division to the part-time division must comply with the academic schedule determined by the Dean’s Office. Students in this category may not graduate in fewer than seven semesters (excluding summers).

- A student in the part-time division who transfers, after approval from the Dean's Office, to the full-time division:
  a) before the third semester and graduates in three years (six semesters) must complete a minimum of eight hours of summer courses;
  b) before the fourth semester and graduates in three years (six semesters) must complete a minimum of eleven hours of summer courses;
  c) before the fifth semester and graduates in three years (six semesters) must complete a minimum of fifteen hours of summer courses over two summers.

Additional credits earned in one academic year or summer session will not permit a student to take fewer than the minimum credit hours per semester thereafter.

- Students who want to transfer to a new division must have a division transfer form signed before registration begins for the effective term. Division transfers are not permitted after registration has begun. In addition, students are permitted to transfer divisions only once during their law school careers.

LATE REGISTRATION

Students who register for classes after the summer term start date will be charged a late registration fee.
REGISTRATION
Registration will begin on Wednesday, February 21. All registrations including drop/add will be processed via LOCUS on the web. Please see the website instructions for complete information on LOCUS. If you have any questions, contact the Law Registrar Office at: Law-Registrar@luc.edu or (312) 915-7167.

NOTE: Students register by the number of hours successfully earned. Procedures and scheduled times must be adhered to in all cases. Academic credit will not be given for courses in which students have not properly registered. If a student fails to drop a course he/she is not attending but registered for, the student will receive a "WF" which will be permanent on the record. It is the responsibility of each student to register properly for his or her courses and to confirm course selections through the LOCUS system. LOCUS registration instructions are available on the university’s website.

IMMUNIZATION RECORD: Students whose current immunization records are not on file at the Wellness Center will be blocked from registering. More information, a list of exemptions, and a downloadable form are available on the Wellness Center Home page.

General Information and Requirements

ATTENDANCE GUIDELINES Regular and punctual class attendance, as determined by the instructor and the Dean, is required in all courses. Excessive absences or tardy attendance, even if all or some of them are considered to be “excused,” violate this requirement. Students who do so are subject to various sanctions including a reduction in the grade, withdrawal from the course, additional remedial work, withholding of the final exam or a final grade which results in the grade of “WF” (withdraw failing), or other appropriate sanctions in the discretion of the instructor or the Dean. Since regular and punctual attendance is required in all courses, registration for courses that meet at the same time or overlapping times is not permitted.

REQUIRED COURSES: Students must successfully complete all of the following courses and a minimum of 86.0 credits in order to graduate, 74 of which must be graded credits.

- Advocacy, Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, Contracts, Criminal Law, Legal Writing I & II – Legal Research, Professional Responsibility, Property, and Torts.
- Perspective Elective Course (2-3 credits)
- Skills Course (2-3 credits) – After The First Year
- Experiential Learning (6 credits) – After The First Year
  A minimum of 6 credits are required after the first year. A maximum of 3 Experiential Learning hours may be earned through a comprehensive simulation. At least 3 credits must be earned through a live-client experience in one of the following ways:
  1. an intensive field placement through Loyola’s Externship Program,
  2. through participation in one of Loyola’s seven clinics, or
  3. through an approved practicum project.

Students may not satisfy the Experiential Learning requirement by taking a class that is also taken to satisfy the “Skill” requirement or the “Perspective Elective” requirement.

Bar Skills Course (2 Credits)- Students who are ranked in the bottom 15 percent of their class after their second, third, or fourth semester of law school must complete “BAR EXAM FUNDAMENTALS” (LAW 232) in order to graduate. Those students who entered law school before the fall of 2014 are exempt from this requirement.

NOTE: Students must register for all courses, in the required semester and year. Failure to register for a required course will result in a grade of “WF” in those required courses.
ONLINE COURSES FOR JD STUDENTS
Loyola may offer enrollment in select online courses, taught by experienced practitioner faculty. Juris Doctor students who have completed at least 28 hours may take up to 4 hours per term and a maximum of 15 online credit hours throughout their Juris Doctor program.

NOTE: Each state has different rules for admission to the bar. Students should consult with each jurisdiction in which they intend to practice to ensure that completion of online courses qualify for bar admission.

J.D. EXTERNS: Approval form is in the Summer Extern Packet which is available on our website. Applications for summer externships are due to Ms. Josie Gough by April 20.

AUDITING CLASSES Students who want to take a course without receiving academic credit may audit the course, provided that the course is not closed at the capacity. Students who have registered for credit in a class that is filled may not convert their registration to an audit. A course that is audited does not count as hours attempted, therefore, it is not considered in determining a student’ s academic full-time or part-time status; however, tuition is charged as though the course is being taken for credit. Class attendance is required; if you do not attend class, a final grade of W will be recorded. Assignments, examinations and term papers, are not required, but you have a right to participate in class discussions. All auditors must complete and submit an audit request form in the School of Law Registrar’s Office, room 1203. A course will not be converted to Audit after the Change of Registration period has ended.

DUAL DEGREE STUDENTS: Students in a dual degree program within another school of the university must contact the Law Registrar, Dora Jacks, prior to registering for Law school courses each semester for curriculum planning and tuition policies. See the dual degree web page for additional information. All dual degree students must enroll in graduate courses under their Graduate Career.

COURSES REQUIRING PRIOR APPROVAL
Students registering for courses that require permission must receive faculty approval. Approval forms for Directed Study, Independent Research, and Graduate Legal Studies are available on the web. All forms must be completed, signed, and returned to the Law Registrar Office, no later than April 27.

NOTE:
- Students can enroll themselves in approved courses approximately two business days after completed and signed forms are returned to the Law Registrar Office.
- Students who wish to drop the course after submission of the approval form are responsible for withdrawing from the course.

For other courses that require approval (a form is not needed), faculty will submit a list of approved students to the Law Registrar Office. Students are responsible for enrolling themselves in all approved courses.

CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS
General information and applications for each School of Law certificate program are available on our certificates page online.

Certificates will appear as an official comment on the J.D. transcript. Certificates will be given to students, approximately 4-6 weeks after the semester ends. Please note that certificate status will not be noted in the commencement program nor at the commencement ceremony.

Application Process: Download an unofficial copy of your JD transcript using LOCUS.

Schedule an appointment with a faculty member in the department you plan to receive your certificate: Bring your completed form and your transcript to the appointment. Faculty will advise you on your curriculum plan.

Health Law: Megan Bess or Kristin Finn
Child and Family Law: Diane Geraghty, Anita Weinberg, Bruce Boyer or Stacey Platt
Tax Law: Jeffrey Kwall, or Anne-Marie Rhodes
Your signed form will be needed at your graduation interview with the School of Law Registrar, Dora Jacks. The Registrar will certify that you meet all of the certificate requirements after final grades have been calculated. Your certificate status will be noted on your transcript when your degree is conferred. You will be notified when your certificate is ready.

DIVISION TRANSFER Upper-class students, who want to transfer to a new division effective Summer 2018, must have a division transfer form signed by Dean Gaspardo, by February 19. Students are permitted to transfer divisions only once during their law school careers. Students are not permitted to change divisions after registration has begun nor can students transfer divisions for their final semester. Full-time students are not permitted to graduate in less than three years.

FERPA RIGHTS - The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act
The School of Law Registrar Office will verify information including students’ dates of attendance, status (full/part-time), degree earned, and the date a degree was conferred, when inquiries are made by lending institutions, law firms, etc., unless otherwise notified in writing. Visit the FERPA website for more information.

NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE OF NAME AND ADDRESS
Students are responsible for the accuracy of their personal data in LOCUS. To change your name, you must complete a Change of Name form located in the Law Registrar Office, room 1203.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION
Visit our website for Financial Aid information.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS IN ACADEMIC DIFFICULTY
Summer school students, including those who participate in study abroad programs, who are academically disqualified as a result of spring semester grades, will be withdrawn from summer school classes. Only tuition and fees will be refunded in full, and summer school courses will be erased from the student’s record. Students who suspect that they are at risk of academic disqualification should be aware of this policy when contemplating summer school enrollments and overseas travel.

CANCELLED CLASSES
Classes which do not meet the minimum enrollment requirement set by the School of Law are subject to cancellation. Cancellations can occur up to and including the first week of classes.

CLOSED CLASSES
Please keep the following points in mind as you prepare for registration:

- Register as soon after your scheduled registration time. At that time, you have the best opportunity to enroll in the courses you want. The later you register, the more you will lose that advantage.

- If a class is full, the system will not permit further registrations unless a student drops the course. If you wish to register for a class that is full, keep in mind the following:

  1. Your only option is to continue to check LOCUS for openings. A student must drop the class in order for a space to become available. There is no guarantee, but usually a spot will become available at some point before the semester begins. There is a great deal of “turnover” during registration and the advantage will go to the students who keep checking the system.

  2. Instructors are not able to override the system. While a faculty member may have sympathy for your situation, he/she does not have the ability to register you. Members of the administration are always pleased to help, but when a class is full, the only fair way to get into the course is to check the system frequently.

  3. You may not sit-in on the class. You will not receive credit unless you are properly registered for the course in the LOCUS system.
CLASS CONFLICTS
Students are not permitted to register for classes that conflict in whole or in part.
Please note the following two examples:

1. Class #1 meets from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Class #2 meets from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Registration in both classes is not permitted because of the time conflict.

2. Class #1 meets every Saturday morning throughout the semester. Class #2 is a weekend seminar class that meets one weekend on Saturday and Sunday, but at the same time as Class #1. Registration in both classes is not permitted.

WITHDRAWING AND DROPPING CLASSES

SCHEDULE CHANGE

Withdrawal
Complete withdrawal before the beginning of the session start date will result in no financial responsibility. Students who completely withdraw from all classes after the session start date will have their tuition and fees adjusted according to the schedule set by the Office of the University Bursar.

A student may completely withdraw from Loyola through LOCUS until the last day to withdraw with a grade of “W”. After this period, the student must contact the Law Registrar Office to withdraw. Tuition and fee charges will be based on the beginning of the session, not on the class start date. The withdrawal date for each course is available in LOCUS by selecting the calendar icon in the Student Center.

Schedule Change
Students may change their summer class schedule through LOCUS until the last day to withdraw with a grade of “W”. After this period, the student must contact the Law Registrar Office to change his/her schedule. The withdraw date for each course is available in LOCUS by selecting the calendar icon in the Student Center. Tuition and fee charges for a dropped class are based on the start of the session, not on the class start date. Dropping a course in the early Summer Session and adding another in the late Summer Session is not considered a change of registration, but will follow the withdrawal and schedule change calendar for the current session.

Schedule changes made before the official term start date have no financial impact. Students who drop classes after the session start date will be assessed tuition based on the schedule set by the Office of the University Bursar.

TUITION
The J.D. and LL.M tuition rate is $1,511.00 per credit hour. The M.J. tuition rate is $1,361.00 per credit hour. NO FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY WILL BE INCURRED FOR STUDENTS WHO WITHDRAW PRIOR TO THE START DATE OF EACH SUMMER TERM.

PAYMENT OF FEES
After you register through LOCUS, you will receive a statement of tuition and fees. Payment in full (less pending Financial Aid) must be received by the due date shown on the invoice or a late charge fee will be added to your account. If you wait until the term begins to enroll in classes, you will be charged a late registration fee.

Registered students are considered to be in attendance in a course until they withdraw through LOCUS by the late registration deadline.
WITHDRAWAL FROM THE SCHOOL OF LAW
Withdrawal is defined as completely withdrawing from all courses. Financial responsibility and refund policies for a complete withdrawal are based on the schedule set by the Office of the University Bursar. Students who wish to withdraw completely from the School of Law should contact Dean Faught or Dean Gaspardo.

Complete withdrawal before the beginning of the term start date: A complete withdrawal from the School of Law before the official term start date can be done through the LOCUS system. At this time no financial responsibility will be incurred except for any non-refundable fees.

Complete withdrawal after the term start date: Any student withdrawing on the term start day will have their tuition and fees adjusted according to the schedule in LOCUS. Charges will be based on the School of Law’s official withdrawal date.

Complete withdrawal after the official term withdrawal deadline: Students will receive all “WF” grades and will be responsible for fees and tuition according to the schedule set by the Office of the University Bursar.

*For all Study Abroad withdrawal dates and policies please refer to the web at:

GRADUATION & BAR EXAM INFORMATION

GRADUATION INTERVIEWS - AUGUST 2018 PROSPECTIVE GRADUATES
Juris Doctor students who have not already made an appointment for August graduation must schedule an appointment with Dora Jacks, Registrar no later than February 23. It is recommended that students complete a graduation interview prior to registration for their final semester.

THE ILLINOIS AND MULTI-STATE BAR EXAM

ILLINOIS BAR APPLICATIONS
3rd and 4th Year Students
Students who plan to take the Illinois Bar Exam in February can complete application materials at the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar webpage (www.ilbaradmissions.org). The regular filing deadline is September 15.

MULTISTATE PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY EXAM (MPRE)
The MPRE is the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination, a multiple choice exam containing 50 questions, which is produced, marketed, and administered by the American College of Testing (ACT) on behalf of the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) three times each calendar year (April, August, and November). The test is designed to measure the examinee’s knowledge of the ethical standards of the legal profession and is two hours and five minutes in length. Many jurisdictions, including Illinois, require bar applicants to sit for the MPRE. The MPRE is also scored and scaled nationally, although each jurisdiction establishes its own passing score. Visit the website of the NCBE at www.ncbex.org for detailed information.

An applicant to the Illinois bar may take the MPRE at any time during or after law school.
