

2025-2026

RODIN SOCIAL JUSTICE FELLOWSHIP

The Curt & Linda Rodin Center for Social Justice

FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION
DEADLINE:
October 31, 2024

ABOUT THE RODIN CENTER:

Launched in Spring 2018, the Rodin Center for Social Justice builds upon Loyola University's unwavering commitment to social justice by strengthening and expanding programs that address health justice, criminal justice, and education law and increasing opportunities for students to serve the legal needs of persons who are living in poverty or otherwise marginalized. The Center is committed to encouraging all students to learn how the law can be a tool for justice and to embrace social justice work as a life-long commitment through public interest legal careers or pro bono activities.

ABOUT THE FELLOWSHIP:

This year four students will be selected as the 2025-2026 Curt and Linda Rodin Social Justice Fellows to help to promote social justice programming, service, and careers. The Rodin fellowship is intended to support students with strong leadership skills who are committed to careers in social justice and public interest work.

Fellows must:

- Complete a 10-week summer internship immediately before their last year of law school with a nonprofit or government agency serving people living in poverty or otherwise facing oppression or marginalization
- Complete the requirements for the Public Interest and Social Justice Certificate;
- Maintain academic good standing;
- Help plan and attend an annual Social Justice Symposium and other social justice programming
- Commit, upon graduation, to serving, representing, or advocating on behalf of indigent persons, disadvantaged groups, or inadequately protected interests.

BENEFITS:

Fellows will receive a total of $8625 in tuition support over their last three semesters ($2875 per semester) and a $6,000 summer stipend to support unpaid social justice and public interest work during the summer before their last year of law school.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Full Time 2L students
- Part-Time 3L students
- Leadership skills
- Commitment to social justice work

HOW TO APPLY:

Submit a completed application ONLINE HERE

For More Information,
Visit the Rodin Center
WebPage