DACA Documentary and Discussion

Thursday
April 26, 2018
4-6:30pm
Galvin Auditorium, Sullivan Center

Join us in viewing Don’t Tell Anyone (No Le Digas A Nadie), a film showing the consequences faced by the over 11 million undocumented people in America.

Discussant:
Aurora Chang, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor,
School of Education

Once an undocumented immigrant from Guatemala and raised in Richmond, California in a family of eight, Dra. (Doctora) Aurora Chang is now an Assistant Professor in Loyola’s School of Education. Her courses include social justice education, undocumented students, and Chicana Feminist Epistemology. Her research addresses the intersection of education, identity and agency within traditionally marginalized communities.
