Tuition Credit Calendar 2018

SUMMER SESSIONS WITHDRAWAL AND SCHEDULE CHANGE POLICY

Students use LOCUS to make all schedule changes. The first day of the Early Summer Session and the first two days of Summer Sessions A, B, and C are considered the Late Registration periods. Adding a class to your schedule during Late Registration will incur a $50 late registration fee.

Complete withdrawal from Loyola before the official start date of each session will result in no financial responsibility. Withdrawal from classes after the session start date or Late Registration period will have tuition and fees adjusted according to the Tuition Credit Calendar (see above) and the Key Dates (see page 8). Once you register for a class, you are responsible for payment, if your plans change for the summer, please withdraw from courses. Review withdrawal schedule to make sure you understand the deadlines. Loyola is not responsible for withdrawing students.

The financial impact of withdrawal as specified on the Tuition Credit Calendar can also be found on the Bursar’s Withdrawal Schedule at LUC.edu/bursar/withdrawalschedulechange20172018.

The academic impact of withdrawal listing deadlines for penalty grades of W and WF for each Session is noted on page 8 and can be found at LUC.edu/academics/schedules/summer/academic_calendar.

Students enrolled in classes that fall on Memorial Day and the official Independence Day holiday will make up the class time on a designated Friday following the holiday, or another specified day. Instructors will provide students with these dates. Make-up dates are also listed on page 8 or online on the Summer Academic Calendar.
