Biographical Information

Carol Frances Jegen, BVM, was born October 11, 1925 to Julian and Evelyn Jegen of Chicago. Sr. Jegen officially joined the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (BVM) on September 8, 1944 from St. Robert Bellarmine Parish, Chicago, a little over a month before her nineteenth birthday. She professed first vows on March 19, 1947, and final vows on August 15, 1952. Two of her sisters joined other religious orders; her brother inherited the management of Jegen's Florist; and her other sister married and raised a family.

Sr. Jegen received her BS in History from St. Louis University in 1951, and both her MA in Theology (1958) and her PhD in Religious Studies (1968) from Marquette University. In addition, she studied at St. John's University's Institute for Ecumenical and Cultural Research in Collegeville, Minnesota, during a sabbatical from Mundelein College, 1984-1985. Sr. Jegen also acted as visiting professor in Christian Spirituality at Creighton University (1984, 1986) and as visiting professor at the University of Notre Dame's Institute for Clergy Education (1979, 1982-1983).

Although Sr. Jegen has taught at the elementary, secondary, and university levels, including ministering as a teacher at Holy Family Elementary School in Mason City, Iowa, as well as in St. Louis and Milwaukee, her identity as a scholar and an educator is most often associated with Mundelein College in Chicago. She joined the staff of Mundelein College in 1957. She was an instrumental faculty member at Mundelein from 1957 to 1991, serving the university community as a Professor of Religious Studies (Associate Professor in 1969 and full Professor in 1972), Theology Department Chairwoman (1957-1964, 1968-1969, 1973), Chairperson of the Peace Studies Committee (1987-1991), coordinator of the Hispanic Institute (1979-1987, 1989-1991), and as the founder and subsequently, director of both Mundelein's Graduate Program in Religious Studies (1967-1977, 1979-1982) and the Mundelein Center for Religious Education (1966-1970).

After Mundelein College was absorbed into Loyola University of Chicago in 1991, Sr. Jegen joined the Loyola community as a Professor of Pastoral Studies and as a consultant to the Instituto Hispanico. She also co-chaired a Peace Studies Committee at Loyola for the College of Arts and Sciences, which established a Peace Studies minor patterned after Mundelein College's model. Sr. Jegen became Professor Emerita, having retired from Loyola in 1995.

Sr. Jegen devoted much of her energies to the support of Hispanic ministries, work that has earned her an ACP (Association of Chicago Priests) Award and the Loyola University of Chicago Civic Award. She is probably best known, however, for her support of the United Farm Workers (UFW) Movement. She was incarcerated for two weeks in a Fresno, California prison camp for her involvement. This experience inspired Sr. Jegen to campaign vigorously on behalf of UFW boycotts and to encourage her fellow BVM sisters to support the cause.

Sr. Carol Frances Jegen, BVM passed away on July 7, 2020 at Marian Hall in Dubuque, Iowa, and was laid to rest at the Mount Carmel Cemetery.

Scope and Content

The papers of Sister Carol Frances Jegen, BVM, span from 1958 to 2014, focus primarily on her work as an educator, author, and lecturer in numerous conferences, religious retreats, and workshops. Sr. Jegen's work as a social activist, particularly her involvement with the United Farm Workers, is included in the collection. These papers also include professional awards and distinctions and documents regarding committees, meetings, conferences, and publications. Personal and professional correspondences are also included, as well as several curriculum vitae and numerous media clippings featuring Sr. Jegen. Series and subseries are organized alphabetically.

Series 1: Biographical and Personal, 1968-2014, undated, Box 1

Contains curriculum vitae, papers relating to her work with the United Farm Workers, personal correspondence, and biographical essays discussing Sr. Jegen and her work as an educator and activist.

Series 2: Professional Activities, 1958-2009, undated, Boxes 2-3

Includes awards and honors presented to Sr. Jegen and documentation on Sr. Jegen's work at both Mundelein College and Loyola University. This series also contains such information as notes, agendas, and minutes of committees in which Sr. Jegen participated.

Series 3: Programs/Events, 1971-2005, undated, Boxes 4-8

Contains correspondence, notes, lectures, presentations, and homilies performed by Sr. Jegen at various events. Events include religious retreats, sermons, workshops, lectures/presentations, conferences, and book panels.

Series 4, Publications, 1961-2009, Boxes 9-13

Includes correspondence and documentation that accompanies each work. All publications contain articles, chapters, editing, or full authorship by Sr. Carol Francis Jegen. Also included are the numerous book reviews of outside literature solicited from various publishers.

Sub-series 4A: Serials, 1961-2005, undated

Include numerous serial publications including: The Bible Today, Chicago Studies, Liturgy, and Lutheran Women Today, Salt, and Worship.

Sub-series 4B: Monographs, 1961-2009, undated

Contains materials pertaining to such publications as: Mary According to Women, Jesus the Peacemaker, Restoring Our Friendship with God, and Transformed by the Trinity.

Series 5: Research Materials, 1978-1993, undated, Boxes 14-15

Consists of miscellaneous research materials including various publications on Peace Studies, Religion and Peace, Women and Religion, and Women's Studies.

Series 6: Audio-Visual Materials and 3-D Objects, 1972-2002, undated, Boxes 16-18

Includes photographs, slides, audiocassettes, videocassettes, a scrapbook, a medallion, and a photo album. The scrapbook and photo album have been deconstructed. Audiocassettes include interviews, panels, and lectures. The slides are a collection from time Sr. Jegen spent in Fresno, CA with the United Farm Workers; there is also a narrative that accompanies the slides.
