DEGREE PROGRAMS

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

DEPARTMENT OF FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS

Creative spirit

The arts thrive at Loyola. As a student in the Department of Fine and Performing Arts, you'll cultivate your talents in the studio and expand your skill base by engaging with multiple disciplines.

“The many departments and programs within the College of Arts and Sciences invite all Loyola students not only to lay a well-rounded foundation for life-long learning through the Core Curriculum but also to embrace a way of thinking critically that unleashes their deepest intellectual passions,” says Thomas Regan, S.J., dean. “A true ‘Jesuit education’ seeks to form competent and compassionate ‘women and men for others.’”

HANDS-ON APPROACH

Expand your horizons

You'll have extensive resources at your disposal, from modern creative spaces to cutting-edge classrooms to a distinguished faculty of teacher-scholars. Our location in the city of Chicago offers unbeatable access to numerous arts-oriented organizations, enabling you to further refine your skills through internships and make beneficial career connections. • LUC.edu/career

MAJORS

Art History BA

Through this major, you will develop a general background in the history of art and in your final year of study, you'll concentrate on an area of your choosing.

Dance BA

The Dance major offers training in ballet and classical modern dance techniques, as well as performing demanding repertory. This curriculum allows students to develop their physical and artistic skills at a conservatory level while engaging in benefits of a Jesuit liberal arts education.

Music BA

The music program encourages self-expression through music and coursework, and provides numerous performance opportunities. Courses prepare you to create and appreciate music, regardless of whether you pursue a music-related career. Students may choose to pursue a concentration in Jazz Studies or Sacred Music.

Studio Art BA

In the studio art program, you'll gain a foundation in a variety of studio areas and art history, as well as a medium of your choosing. Students must choose from Ceramics and Sculpture; Drawing and Painting; or Photography.

Theatre BA

The theatre program offers a comprehensive theatre education, hands-on experience, and personal attention. Participate in in-depth study in acting, history, criticism, and literature, and design.

Visual Communication BA

The visual communication program will develop your expertise in the elements of graphic design. A one-semester internship at a local advertising agency or design studio will complete your academic study.

MINORS

Most majors have accompanying minors. Minors without a comparable major include:

Musical Theatre (for Dance, Music, and Theatre majors only)

Shakespeare Studies
